Noted Composer Reese To Give Present of March To The State of California

Max Reese, veteran filmland composer, arranger and orchestrator, today packaged a musical salute to the State of California as a special kind of commemoration for his own 80th birthday.

Reese, who has orchestrated scores of Hollywood films, com-posed a march—"Hail California" —which, he hopes, will be adopted as the official state march.

"CALIFORNIA HAS never had a march of its own," explained Mrs. Erna Reese, wife of the distinguished musician, "so Max has dedicated this march to the State of California."

The march, a stirring musical accolade reminiscent of the days when Sousa marches were as popular as rock 'n roll, will be of-fered to the state as Reese ob-serves his 80th birthday on Aug.

"HE IS HOPING that it will be used for the inauguration of the next governor," said Mrs. Reese, again speaking for her publicity-shy husband. "It doesn't matter whether he's a Republican or a Democrat. The music is for the

Soviet Strategy in the Middle East and indeed very few people in the world truly understand the workings of communism.

Many books, articles and com mentaries have presented the subject, but these reach only a small fraction of the public here

MOST PEOPLE just don't want to think, to be bothered, or to be frightened about com-

Hence, to most, communism is just something unwanted, unde-sirable, indirectly sinister-just a threat at some time in the distant future, or something that J. Edgar Hoover and the FBI should handle for us. Unfortunately communism is a whole lot more than that.

COMMUNISM IS the same the nationality, but exactly the same goal . . . the overthrow of any government they don't like, by revolution, murder, conspiracy, political infiltration, propaganda, character assassination, false-ligion of promises." It promises anything, to anybody, at any time, just so it suits the pur-

THE PURPOSE IS to vince that whatever ails YOU. at any given moment, commu-nism has the answer and will solve it for you... anything from freedom from all taxes, to a healthy, carefree life to age 150. This is the strategy of com munism as we have seen it around the world.

And it works, especially among hungry and hopeless peo-ple. It is effective in countries whose people have little food and material possessions, while the lives in luxury in the big house with all the servants.

IT IS QUITE SIMPLE for the ample, to make headway in the the years upon which to rest his

It is not possible to understand Since more than 80 per cent of Soviet strategy in the Middle the population of the area is East, or anywhere else, unless hungry and hopeless, commu-we understand communism . . . nism has been successful in gaining support.

The support is not actually for communism as an ideology . but for the things that con nism promises to provide these hopeless millions.

THESE MASSES do not become ideological communists . . . but victims of false promises. This is the reason that many Moslems have been taken in by communism . . . for communism does not denounce religion among religious people.

This comes later. Comm does not disturb the way of life, until after it takes over. This is the modus operandi of commu nism all over the world and at the moment the Middle East.

AS WE SAID IN our previous column, Russia will not fight—because she is convinced that whelming power of the U.S. and its allies. Russia may deliver a serious surprise blow: but she cannot sustain an all-out war, for she lacks popular support within the country. within the country

Millions of Christians hate atheism. The satellites are not dependable. Russia does not have enough food supply, transmaterials, resources

SHE WILL HAVE to fight a four-front war . . . from Finland to Albania there are silent enemies . . . Greece, Turkey, Pakistan on the Middle East borders India must side with the commonwealth . . . Japan is most certain to fight on our side, for the Russian menace is deeprooted in Japanese history. Russia cannot sustain the pro-

strategy in the Middle East. PREMIER KHRUSHCHEV'S

the propaganda front, where his talents are deftly suited. His contemplated visit in the U.S. will be a great prestige victory for him, as it is played up in the communist press as "an in-vitation by Eisenhower."

We believe it a diplomatic mis-calculation of major proportions to invite him 'n New York in-stead of to Geneva. Khrushchev will denounce us right in our back yard for our military inter-vention in the Middle East and behome the hero of Nasser and

HIS STRATEGY IS to force us to negotiate with him on the Middle East, for by so doing we give official recognition to Soviet influence there. He will increase his tirades for our withdrawal while hoping we don't withdraw, to keep the Arab pot boiling. He has us over the proverbial bar-rel, no matter which way it rolls.

Our summary of Soviet strategy at this point appears to us something like this: No military showdown, but fomenting the crisis, hoping that Arab and U. S.-British shooting will start

LOTS OF MILITARY and economic aid to Nasser and the UAR, to encourage Arab nationalism and even an attack against Israel. To use the crisis as an opening wedge into the oil reservoir, Suez canal and Africa.

How can we stop it? For the short pull: To work through the U.N. To work with Nasser, much as we dislike him, just as we work with Khrushchev. To rec-ognize the Arab revolution for what it is . . . an emancipation from colonialism.

TO SOFT - PEDAL our military coalitions against commu-nism and emphasize our interest in a better life for the Arab millions. Re-appraise our military aid lest more U.S. equipment is used for revolution as in I r a q. Equalize our financial aid to Israel and the Arab states.

For the long pull: Train diplo-mats who understand the Middle East . . . and who speak its lan-guages. As soon as possible work toward a man-to-man meeting between Premier Ben Gurion and President Nasser. For no solution is possible in the Middle East until the Israel-Arab issue is resolved. —John Morley

The Dual Highway of History

WASHINGTON, D. C .- Trends you don't shoot Santa Clausare in collision. If you know which trend will overcome or divert the other, you can readily foretell where our domestic and foreign affairs are taking us.

Domestically, as I am told by one of the wisest heads on Capitol Hill, there is a trend in poli-tics which favors the incumbents. We saw it working in the Texas primaries where Senator Ralph Yarborough threw back the very strong challenge of for-mer Senator William Blakley. Texans tell me that it would have been unsporting to unseat Yarborough who has been in office barely a year and been

THE OTHER TEXAS primary election of note saw the Lone Star's lone Republican Congressman, Bruce Alger of Dallas, score a 99 per cent primary vicalmost assuring his reelection. In Arkansas, Orval Faubus was another incumbent and a big winner.

Following the path of this tendency, a number of senior Democrats and Republicans are saying that the hardest candi-date to beat in 1960 will be Vice President Nixon. Nobody in Washington has done his job better than Nixon. What's more, he has done the rarest thing in politics-turned enemies into nor his successor, whatever the party label.

This is one tendency-to favor the ins. But the opposite trend shows itself in the birthrate, the hara-kari behavior of Republic-ans in Oregon and California, the pending admission of Alaska as a State. All these are indications that the popular party, the Dem-ocratic one, is growing in num-bers faster than the minority party is gaining in rectitude and wisdom. What happens in politi-cal physics when the pro-incumbent trend collides with the pro-Democratic trend? We shall see in the '58-60 eections.

TURNING TO international a fairs, the same sort of trends been a time in history when the will to peace was stronger. The dread of universal destruction has made pacifists of the most ferocious warrier-statesmen. It caused the Western allies to releash their anti-Nasser forces which were in full cry for Suez in 1956.

It caused Khrushchev to spare the handful of American Marines whom the President-relying on Khrushchev's reluctance to come incinerated—tossed Lebanon. CHAMBER PRESIDENT Rolf Skovholt rated the poll, to be con-ducted through ballots appear-ing in the Desert Sentinel, as a necessary preliminary step before taking any action aimed at incorporation.

Chamber officers similarly indicated that they felt community residents should decide whether they are in favor.

NATIONAL

THE DAILY NEWSPAPER . . . because 88% of America's families get a newspaper every day. That's national coverage!

Over 100 million people read a newspaper on an average day. Every one of these readers has the opportunity to see every advertisement in the newspaper. Only a few of these people can be reached by any radio television. radio, television or magazine message.

Unlike television and radio, newspaper advertising is always ready and waiting to suit the time, place and convenience of the consumer. The newspaper is always selling — and always selling to more people than any other medium.

If you want to sell more products to more people, use the daily newspaper - the one true national advertising medium.
